

Instructors Needed

Ordnance Mechanical Maintenance School (OMMS)

at Ft. Lee & Aberdeen Proving Grounds, MD

91B – Wheeled Vehicle Mechanic
91D – Power Generation Equipment Repair
91E – Machinist
91F – Small Arms Towed Artillery Repair
91G – Fire Control Systems Repair
91H – Track Vehicle Repair
91J – Quartermaster Chemical Equipment Repair
91K – Utilities Equipment Repair
91P – Artillery Mechanic

GENERAL SUMMARY: Develops, organizes, and conducts training and educational programs for customer personnel; works under general supervision; performs additional duties as assigned.

PRINCIPAL DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Develops, tests, maintains, and delivers training programs and related materials in support of customer training objectives;
2. Establishes course content and objectives;
3. Conducts training sessions and develops criteria for evaluating the effectiveness of training activities;
4. Maintains records of training activities, participant progress, and program effectiveness;
5. Updates course documentation on a regular basis to ensure timeliness and relevance;
6. Maintains current knowledge of relevant hardware and software applications as assigned;
7. Participates in special projects as required.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

1. Typically requires 2-5 years of directly related military equipment training experience;

Email resume to: Alan Wyatt @ alan.c.wyatt@us.army.mil